

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF CONDOMINIUM UNIT OWNERS

THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF UNIT OWNERS SET FORTH HEREIN APPLY ONLY TO THE OWNERS OF UNITS IN THE CONDOMINIUM AND NOT CLUB MEMBERS.

For purposes of this Section, the rights of a Unit Owner or a Club Member shall be exercisable only by the Club Association for all Club Units subjected to the Club. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the benefit of the easements granted to Unit Owners and Club Members and their Designated Permitted Users in the Condominium Declaration shall inure to the benefit of the Person or Persons who hold title of record to a Club Interest in one or more Club Units and their Designated Permitted Users.

Use of Units

Subject to certain restrictions set forth in the Condominium Documents, the Club Units and the Suite Units may only be used for residential purposes.

Common Charges: Determination and Assessment

Common Expenses, which are payable only by Unit Owners and are included in their Common Charges, are allocated among Unit Owners in the manner set forth in the Schedule C – Condominium Budget set forth in Part I of the Offering Plan. Common Expenses include, among other things, all costs and expenses in connection with the repair, maintenance, replacement, restoration and operation of, and any alteration, addition or improvement to, the Common Elements, and may include amounts for certain other items as the Condominium Board may deem proper.

At least annually, the Condominium Board will prepare a budget for Common Expenses and allocate, as aforesaid, and assess among all Unit Owners, Common Charges to meet Common Expenses.

The Condominium Board will furnish copies of each budget on which Common Charges are based to all Unit Owners and advise such Unit Owners of the amount of Common Charges payable by them. Unless otherwise determined by the Condominium Board, Common Charges will be payable monthly in advance on the first day of each month.

Common Charges: Collection and Lien for Non-Payment

The Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners, will have a lien on each Unit for unpaid Common Charges, together with interest thereon, assessed against such Unit in proportion to the respective Common Interests of the Units. All such liens, however, to the extent required by Law, will be subordinate to the lien of any Permitted Mortgage of record and to liens for Real Estate Taxes on the particular Unit. Such liens may be foreclosed by a suit brought in the name of the Condominium Board (acting on behalf of all Unit Owners) in like manner as the foreclosure of a mortgage on real property or an action may be brought by the Condominium Board to recover unpaid Common Charges without foreclosing such lien.

Repairs to and Maintenance of Units and Common Elements

Generally, all painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, (a) in or to any Unit will be made by the owner of such Unit at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, and (b) in or to the Common Elements will be made by the Condominium Board and the cost and expense thereof will be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

Alterations and Improvements of Units and Common Elements

Each Unit Owner may make any structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to its Unit without the prior written approval of the Condominium Board. Except as otherwise permitted in the Condominium By-Laws, no Unit Owner may make any alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to the Common Elements without the prior written approval of the Condominium Board.

Generally, all alterations or improvements in or to the Common Elements will be made by the Condominium Board and the cost and expense thereof will be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

Insurance

The Condominium Board is required to obtain and maintain the forms of insurance described in the Section of the Offering Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Condominium Board." The Condominium Board is not required to obtain or maintain any insurance with respect to any property contained in a Unit.

Rights of Access

The Condominium Board and any Managing Agent, superintendent and other Persons authorized by the Condominium Board, will have a right of access to any Unit for the purposes of performing installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical or electrical services or other Common Elements in the Unit or elsewhere in the Building, to remove violations, cure defaults by a Unit Owner, correct any condition originating in any Unit and threatening another Unit or any Common Element, and for any other purposes provided in the Offering Plan, Condominium Documents or as may be required by Law, provided that requests for entry (except in emergency situations) are made in advance and that any such entry (except in emergency situations) is at a time reasonably convenient to the Unit Owner and the Permitted Users of any Unit. In case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate, whether the Unit Owner is present at the time or not. Provided reasonable care is exercised to safeguard the Unit Owner's property, any entry described herein shall not render the Condominium Board or its authorized agents liable for damage incurred in connection with the exercise of such right of entry.

Compliance with Terms of Condominium Documents

Each Unit Owner must strictly comply with the provisions of the Condominium Documents. Pursuant to Section 339(j) of the Condominium Act, failure to comply is grounds for an action for damages or injunctive relief, or both, but such forms of relief shall not be exclusive of other remedies provided by Law. The Condominium By-Laws, have been recorded with the Condominium Declaration in the Register's Office.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD

If the Building is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty and the insurance proceeds are insufficient to cover, or exceed, the cost of repairs and restoration, the deficit or surplus, as the case may be, will be shared entirely by all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

If 75% or more of the Building is destroyed or substantially damaged by fire or other casualty and if 75% or more in Common Interest of all Unit Owners do not promptly resolve to proceed with the repair or restoration thereof, the Building will not be repaired and the Property shall be subject to an action for partition instituted by any Unit Owner or lienor, as if owned in common, in which case the net proceeds of sale, together with the net proceeds of insurance policies, shall be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

The proceeds of all policies of physical damage insurance maintained by the Condominium Board shall be payable to the Condominium Board in the event of a loss amounting to $10,000,000 or less. In the event that such proceeds are in excess of $10,000,000, such proceeds shall be payable to the Insurance Trustee. The Insurance Trustee shall hold all such proceeds in accordance with Section 254-(4) of the New York Real Property Law.

Insurance

The Condominium Board is required to obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable and to the extent determined by the Condominium Board to be appropriate, the following insurance: (a) special multi-peril insurance policies including fire with extended "all risk" coverage, replacement cost coverage and agreed valuation, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the entire Building (including each Unit, but excluding appliances, fixtures, improvements, or any furniture, furnishings, decorations, belongings or other personal property supplied or installed by Unit Owners or their Designated Permitted Users, together with all Facilities contained therein and covering the interests of the Condominium, and all Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees, as their respective

Liability of the Condominium Board

To the extent permitted by Law, the Condominium Board shall have no liability to Unit Owners except that a Condominium Board member shall be liable for such member's own bad faith or willful misconduct. All Unit Owners shall severally, to the extent of their respective interests in their Units and their appurtenant Common Interests, indemnify each Condominium Board member against any liability or claim except those arising out of such member's own bad faith or willful misconduct.

Amendments to Condominium Documents

Generally, any provision of the Condominium Declaration affecting the Common Elements or all Unit Owners may be amended, modified, added to or deleted by affirmative vote of at least 66 2/3% in Common Interest of all Unit Owners; provided, however, that the Common Interest appurtenant to each Unit may not be altered without the written consent of all Unit Owners directly affected thereby.

No amendment, modification, addition or deletion of the Condominium Declaration (other than those required by Law) shall be effective (a) against any Unit Owner or any Unit unless the Unit Owner has given its written consent thereto, or (b) against the holder of a Permitted Mortgage (as such term is defined in the Condominium Declaration) covering any Unit unless such holder has given its prior written consent thereto.

Termination of Condominium

The Condominium shall continue and the Property shall not be subject to an action for partition (unless terminated by casualty loss, condemnation or eminent domain as provided in the By-Laws) until such time as the Property shall be withdrawn from the provisions of the Condominium Act as a result of the vote to do so of at least 80% in Common Interest of all Unit Owners but not 80% in number. In the event of withdrawal, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or any lienor as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of the sale shall be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests after first applying the share of the net proceeds of such sale otherwise payable to any Unit Owner to the payment of any liens on its Unit, other than a mortgage which is not a Permitted Mortgage in the order of priority of such liens.

Mechanics' Liens

Under the provisions of the Condominium Act, no lien of any nature may arise or be created against the Common Elements except with the unanimous consent of all Unit Owners affected thereby. Liens may arise or be created against only the several Units and their respective Common Interests. Labor performed on, or materials supplied to, a Unit may not be the basis for a mechanic's lien against the Unit of a Unit Owner not expressly consenting to or requesting such work, except in the case of emergency repairs. No labor performed on, or materials furnished to, the Common Elements shall be the basis for a lien thereon but all Common Charges received by the Condominium Board shall constitute trust funds for the purpose of paying the cost of labor performed or materials furnished at the request or with the consent of the Condominium Board or the Managing Agent for the Common Elements.

Easements

In order to facilitate the operation and maintenance of the Building and the sale or leasing of Units therein, each of the Units will be subject to certain easements including easements in favor of Declarants, other Unit Owners and the Condominium Board. These easements, include an easement of support and necessity in favor of all other Units and the Common Elements, and an easement in favor of each Unit Owner to use, operate, maintain, repair, alter, rebuild, restore and replace, provided that such easements shall be exercised in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes. Subject to the terms of the Condominium Documents, Declarants shall have an easement to erect, maintain, repair and replace any sign permitted by Law on the Property for the purposes of advertising the sale of any Unit, the leasing of space in any Unit and the operation of any business of a tenant or occupant of any Unit.
